Legal Advice for Refugees

We advise:

- refugees under the care of Hamburg on all issues related to the asylum process and protection against deportation; and
- people without legal residency status.

You are welcome to drop by during our open consultation hours every Wednesday from 10 am to 1 pm:

Eifflerstraße 3, D-22769 Hamburg

Please bring all documents related to your application for asylum, residence or reasons for asylum. Please also bring any medical certificates, appointment slips or business cards from the doctors / hospitals that may be treating you, as well as any vocational certificates and wage statements you might have.

If you are not comfortable speaking in English or German, please bring someone with you to translate.

We also offer telephone consultations every Monday from 10 am to 12 pm.

If you have any questions about social issues (e.g. welfare benefits, looking for somewhere to live, therapy, work permits), please contact a welfare counselling centre or the Public Legal Information and Arbitration Office in Hamburg (ÖRA).

If you already have a residence permit and would like to find out more about visitor visas or family reunification measures, please contact a lawyer, a district integration centre, the ÖRA, the GRC Tracing Service or another information centre.
